An "abused child" is a child less than eighteen years of age whose parent or other person legally responsible for his care:

A "maltreated child" is a child under eighteen years of age whose physical, mental or emotional condition has been impaired or is in imminent danger of becoming impaired as a result of the failure of his parent or other person legally responsible for his care to exercise a minimum degree of care:

- 1) in supplying the child with adequate food, clothing, shelter, education, medical or surgical care, though financially able to do so or offered financial or other reasonable means to do so; or
- 1) in providing the child with proper supervision or guardianship; or
- 1) by unreasonably inflicting, or allowing to be inflicted, harm or a substantial risk thereof, including the infliction of excessive corporal punishment; or
- 4) by misusing a drug or drugs; or
- 4) by misusing alcoholic beverages to the extent that he loses self-control of his actions; or
- 5) by any other acts of a similarly serious nature requiring the aid of the Family Court; or
- 6) by abandoning the child.
